ABA in 1998 and are probably the highest since the school began admitting students in 1966.

When you return, you will also notice that we have remodeled the first floor of the Law School building with new technology and a new classroom. This puts Western State's investments in the school facilities at over a million dollars for the last year and a half. Other improvements include an increased library budget to supplement the staff and library collection.

We look forward to your return in August.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. James F. Hogg, Dean
